Congratulations to the PVHS Winterguard for their two 1st place performances this past weekend. The colorguard participated in a competition at Coronado and Clark High School on both Friday night and Saturday winning their division in both. In addition to performing with several local schools, many California schools made the trip for the competition. Great job to all the winterguard performers on their successes. Come out and support them at their next local show which will be here at Palo Verde HS on Thursday, April 8th.
