Last weekend the choir students made a clean sweep at the Anaheim Heritage Festival. They competed against 7 other high schools from around the country. The singers took First Place Chamber Choir, First Place Concert Choir, First Place Womens Choir, First and Second Place Show Choir, Choral Sweepstakes, Outstanding Choral Program, and the choral Adjudicators Award. Soloists Jourdan Ibe (Ebay) and Dominique Stewart were recognized as outstanding soloists of the festival with Maestro Awards. Paige Slattery was awarded the Disneys Making Memories Award for her outstanding achievements in leadership and community service. Great job Panther singers!

This is the last week to audition for Serenade, the womens show choir, or for Concert Choir for next year. All that you need to do is come in to the choir room during first or second lunch or right after school, today, Thursday and Friday and see Mrs. Ramirez.

The Choir will host their final concert on June 3 at 6:30 pm in the theater. Come and see Concert Choir, Vocal Infinity, Serenade and the Heartbreakers as they recreate the performances that took top honors in California last week. Then celebrate the class of 2011 and their final concert selections including, U2's Beautiful Day, Somebody to Love and the Senior song, I Hope You Dance. Let's pack the theater to say farewell to this talented group. Tickets are only $5 and are available in the choir room or at the door.
